CARIBBEAN BEACHFOOD FESTIVAL 2027

A C T I V I T I E S

City Heritage & Cultural Origins Tour

Thursday March 25

Uncover the rich tapestry of Trinidad’s past on a guided journey through historical Port of Spain, tracing how Indigenous natives and arriving global cultures shaped our local food traditions. Discover the iconic architecture and cultural migrations that built the vibrant heritage of tastes behind today’s Caribbean Beachfood Festival.

OR

Caroni Bird Sanctuary Boat Eco-Tour

Thursday March 25

Glide through the vast coastal wetland reserve that is the Caroni Swamp. Navigate mangrove channels, and a thriving ecosystem with spectacled caimans, fiddler crabs, and birds. See Caribbean flamingos and hundreds of brilliant Scarlet Ibis—Trinidad’s national bird. This offers guests a glimpse into the raw natural beauty surrounding our food and culture!

SUNDAY MARCH 28TH & TUESDAY MARCH 30TH

The Big Lime on The Sand

Sunday March 28th

Following Saturday's main event, keep the celebration going on Easter Sunday with an authentic Trini beach lime (relaxed Trini gathering) at Maracas Bay! We take a scenic drive winding through the lush Northern Range forest, stopping at Maracas Lookout for breathtaking coastal views. On the golden sands, we sink into the relaxed island vibes with fully packed coolers of chilled drinks, music, ocean breezes, and Trinidad's iconic "Bake and Shark" street food culture.

Tobago Island Escape: Post-Festival Extension

Tuesday March 30th

Add a day trip to sister island Tobago for only $350US! Book early to secure flights and VIP access to Tobago's legendary Buccoo Goat and Crab Racing Festival on March 30th. Trip includes Buccoo Reef glass-bottomed boat cruise, Nylon Pool swims, and lunch at Pigeon Point.

(Note: This excursion requires extending your Trinidad stay by 2 nights. Rates for extra nights vary based on accommodation selected.)
